Dear sir,

Thank for the previous communication. We have already appreciated all suggestions and used it for improvement of our manuscript. Concerning the reviewer's comment, we have made no additional changes to the manuscript according to the reviewer comment of nothing to be changed, however, we accept for all of the suggestions and will use it as the valuable suggestion for our future work.

Concerning the format of the manuscript, we have already added the Title page according to the editorial suggestion. We renamed the subsections of the abstract as the recommendations. Also, we have reformatted the text into one column format.

Those are all of our corrections in the new manuscript. Thank you for your previous help and suggestions in improvement of our manuscript.

Sincerely you.

Sitthiporn Agthong, M.D.
